

CHGC Activities

Awards: compiles and submits a book of evidence containing our project information. As a member of the NC State Garden Club we may submit our accomplishments for recognition.

Community Service: involves the club's outreach to the community such as:

SEEDS — McDougale Elementary School garden club with the 3rd grade students;
Phoenix Place — a community of homes built by Habitat for Humanity; Stratford House — a nursing facility; Freedom House — a detox center for people with addictions;
Downtown Planters — situated in Chapel Hill.

Field Trips: helps plan trips to places of interest to members.

Garden Tour: plans and organizes our garden tour that occurs every other year.

Hospitality: organizes the Meet and Greet Coffee before general membership meetings, the Fall Coffee, Holiday Tea, and Spring Picnic/Auction. Each event needs volunteers to provide leadership oversight.

Learning Circles: organizes garden-related activities targeted for new members (promoting getting to know you).

Membership: provides information to new and potential members about the club, applications, yearbooks, and newsletters.

Newsletter: provides articles and photographs for our electronic newsletter.

Programs: plans and provides speakers for monthly membership meeting activities.

Publicity contacts local newspapers or other media to highlight our club's various contributions to the community.

Special Projects: plans floral design workshops, our biennial Spring Garden Tour and Symposium.
